

Complex number multiplication activity.

Names:

Plot your two given complex numbers on the grid and find the magnitude and standard angle of your number. Find the product of your two given numbers and find its magnitude and standard angle. I will do an example in class.

	$a + bi$ form	magnitude	standard angle
first number second number product

Fill in your class chart on the white board with the results from your group.